The False Prophet

In the book of revelation (1) we investigate a person who is called the false prophet. This false prophet however will not show up until the last days or as some interpret during the seven year tribulation. But a mysterious question must now be asked, and that is who's this false prophet? Does he have a name? Is he functioning at this very moment awaiting his spotlight upon the stage of world history? According to the scriptures we have no data specifying who this false prophet is today, we only know that his roll in the future is to hype up and force the world to accept the mark of the beast and to worship the image of the beast (2). Many are under the belief that the false prophet will be none other then a future pope of the Catholic Church. As the Catholic Church is commonly viewed as a harlot nowadays by some. Therefore this false prophet must be the ungodly pope of the future who turns the whole world's eyes to the Anti-Messiah. However the scripture doesn't connect the dots to the future pope. So again we do not know who it will be? as for his name we don't have that data either. The mystery with the identity of the false prophet will

Inspirational Reading

This month we deal with the act of asking for help. In a recent incident I had responded to an ad in which I paraphrase "looking for talented people to help out" As I responded to the ad I spent some personal time creating some graphic work as a sample. The suggestion of this work was well received but the person was unspecific about what kind of help they really were looking for.

Yet this person also failed to be honest about their motive for the ad. I found out later that the help they really wanted was for someone to run their whole website, not to work with graphic content. So because of their lack of communication and lack of honesty I was really misdirected or mislead. The lesson of this little tale is that before asking for someone's help be sure to always be upfront, be specific, be honest about what you are seeking, don't mislead or lead on others, nor waste peoples time. I really learned that when we have a need and we wish others to get involved we really do need to lay all things out in detail. I image this is also what G-d would prefer us to do many times in prayer when we seek for his help. We should realize that G-d wants to hear everything in honesty, not wasting his time, nor be indecisive or unsure of what we are seeking him about (a). Let's do our best to be specific and truthful with others (b) as we would expect the same when we face G-d in prayer.
