Reasons for the Tribulation Blackouts?

According to the scriptures we find that in our near future there will be a time of a literal great darkness falling upon the earth. Now this darkness in which the scriptures reveal is not interpreting a spiritual one here, though we may see more and more signs of great outward wickedness arising around us, this nonetheless is not about that subject. However Yeshua our Messiah was also in agreement with the prophets (1) when he re-omitted in his teaching the same scenario about the last days darkness (2) he said that "Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light". This is surely NOT speaking of spiritual darkness but is speaking about a time in which darkness as that of the times of the Egyptian judgment (3) will occur and to some degree be much, much, more intense! This darkness is also mentioned within the book of revelation (4) which will occur during the tribulation period. A total of some 4 times plus once before the tribulation gets underway. Redefining the faith?

In this month we touch on the errant growing issues of redefining the biblical faith. But what are we admitting to when we say we are redefining the faith? The definition of the word define means: to fix or lay down definitely; specify distinctly. So, to redefine something means to reinterpret, re-due, or even change what was already fixed, definite or specifically laid down. Within the pulse of main stream Christianity today there's apparently an apostasy movement which heavily sprung its way up with a book entitled "The purpose driven Church"(a)? The author's book nonetheless has created consistent madness within some modern churches, so much to the fact that biblical faith is no longer recognizable within these new apostasy churches. However anyone who shows concern or biblically opposes or confronts the movement is automatically vilified and ostracized (b). The B'rit hadasha (NC) warning here declares; "BEWARE! Least any man spoil (carry) you through (away with) philosophy" (c).The purpose driven Church author has insisted or in my opinion has imposed his redefining philosophy on biblical faith. But as the scripture goes on to clarify, "and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and NOT after Messiah".(d) The redefining of Mr. Warren is just what the Jewish apostle warns against. In a compilation of congregant damaging testimonials and hard hitting facts about Mr. Warrens redefining Christianity, the writer N. W. Hutchings states that the Purpose driven Church movement, and Mr. Warren denies or better yet objects to five known biblical fundamentals such as;(e)(1) the inerrancy and full authority of the bible....
