Season of Rededication

KISLEV-TEVET 5768 DECEMBER 2007

In this month of December we will remember the rededication of our past Jewish temple, it is a historic holiday we call Hanukkah or (dedication). We will also remember to light our celebratory 8-branched menorah (candelabra) for 8 days. As our past tradition states, this is the time or month (Kislev) when a small group of Jewish renegades called the Maccabees overcame their oppressors who tried to sever and stop the way of Jewish worship from following and worshipping the G-d of Israel. In a nutshell this all added up to a revolt at which time the Maccabees rose up and conquered their enemies with G-ds help. Another thing, which relates to the Jewish holy place we call the Kahal (temple) and the holiday was that it was notably desecrated or defiled by Israel's enemy. Jewish History reveals to us that the person responsible for committing this act against G-d was a gentile man named Antiochus Epiphanies who offered, and slaughtered a pig on the outer alter of the temple courtyard. This was the final act, which lead to war. As the Maccabees went on and conquered this enemy they regained position of the Jewish temple, which was under the rule of its oppressor. When they came to the temple it was in need of restoring and rededicating back to G-d. But when they came and looked inside of the temple they saw that the menorah (7 branched eternal lamp) was in need of more oil to stay lit. They only had enough for one day. It would take another 8 days to make and refuel the 7-branched menorah. But G-d caused a great miracle to happen within the temple. G-d caused the oil in his menorah to last not one day but for the entire 8 days! Baruch Hashem! (Praise G-d). This too is another reason why we light our 8-branched menorah and celebrate the season. Hanukkah is also a time we remember our religious freedom and how we also have spiritual freedom because of the Messiahs work conquering our enemy as well. Not only do we remember this, but we remember that the messiah came to us as G-ds eternal light shining in a darkened world (Yohan-an-John 1:1). There are many other things we do during this season but I'm afraid I'm out of room! So for the sake of space let us encourage you now about knowing the messiah in a deeper way. This is a perfect time to rededicate any part of your life, which has been lacking with G-d. It is also a good time to ask G-d to help us overcome any enemy who may be hindering our lives and walks with our G-d. This is also a great time to experience more of G-ds presence (the light) in your life. Why not ask G-d today and see what miracle he will do inside of you his temple. Sameah Hanukkah! (Happy dedication day to you) \(To learn more on Hanukkah click here\)

Revealed Roots

This Month's Hebrew word is:

אור Ohr- (light)

Monthly Hebraic Study

7 branched Menorah

Which definition means: to be or become light, to shine, to be illuminated or lit up.

(Yohan-an-Joh 9:5) As long as I am in the Olam Hazeh (world), I am the Ohr Ha'Olam (light of the world).

In this passage found in Yohan-an (John) the Messiah reveals that he is the Orh (light) of the world. But when he makes this statement it should be understood that he is referring to himself as being that literal eternal lamp that we call the seven-branched Menorah. Which is continuously lit in the Jewish temple. This menorah, which sat in the temple, is symbolically representative of G-ds physical dwelling presence and light upon earth. This symbol pointed to the actual being Yeshua manifested on earth as he reveals, "I AM the light" and again is confirmed in the writings of (Yohan-an-John 1:6-9) who tells us his testimony was to bare witness that indeed Yeshua Ben Elohim (Jesus the son of G-d) is that true eternal light sent by G-d. We too who are in the messiah also share in his divine light (Matt 5:14) but sometimes many choose to hide his light from the world in order to be accepted or welcomed by those in the world. As a result the light is diminished and their witness is not received or noticed. The desire of G-d is to see us be those lights, which shine in a dark world. If a person hides this light how can they be affective witnesses for the Messiah (Luke 11:33)? In this month may we firmly choose to be G-ds instrument of light. And by allowing G-ds light to shine in us may he draw men to know the Messiah the true light of life!

Russia seeking Syrian-Israeli talks DECEMBER 2007

WASHINGTON: Russia, with at least tacit American support, hopes to host a follow-up Middle East peace conference sometime in early 2008, with a goal of establishing direct Israeli-Syrian negotiations to resolve the longstanding Golan Heights dispute. "It is our hope that we can revive the Syrian track in Moscow," the Syrian deputy foreign minister, Faisal Mekdad, told The Washington Post in an interview Wednesday after the international peace conference in Annapolis, Maryland. The Post quoted diplomats from the United States, Russia and several other countries on the proposed follow-up conference. Both Israeli and U.S. officials questioned whether the time was ripe for an Israeli-Syrian solution - both are concerned by the Syrian role in Lebanon and Damascus's support for Hezbollah and Hamas militants and the United States has complained that Syria has not kept militants from entering Iraq - but both also said that they had no objection to exploring any possibilities raised by the conference. Prime Minister Ehud Olmert said that Syria (click here for more)

Who is the Anti-Messiah (Anti-Christ)?

Monthly encouragement

According to the Hebrew Scriptures there are prophetic pictures, which tell us about a person who is called in the B'rit ha dasha (new covenant) the Anti-Christ. One such picture in the Tenach (OT) is found in the book of Daniel. Which identifies him to be the little horn of (Dan 7:8). In other places he resembles historic figures such as Antiochus Epiphanies who proclaimed himself a god and desecrated the Jewish temple, and cut off the way of Jewish living. Many know that Daniel did prophecy about Antiochus Epiphanies being the one who fulfilled this historic prophecy of (Dan 12:11). But the past historic fact points us to yet a future person who would also do the same in the coming days ahead. This person Yeshua said is the abomination of desolation (Matt 24:14- Mrk 13:14). As we learn more about this person from the writings of Sha'ul (Paul) he says the Anti-messiah will himself proclaim to be G-d and will sit in the temple speaking these words of blasphemy (2Thess 2:4, Rev 13:6). We also know that the Anti-messiah is against anything that is G-d (Dan 11:37). The B'rit ha dasha relates that the spirit of this demonic foe has already been at work from the beginning and then some (1Yohan-an-1John 4:3). It should also be understood that the word Anti-messiah does not mean that he is the false Messiah to the Jewish people as some have thought What the Word does implicate is that the Anti-messiah is AGAINST our true Messiah and G-d. As (1Yohan-an-1John 2:22) states:

Who is the liar but the one who denies that Yeshua is the Messiah? This is the Anti-messiah, the one who denies the Father and the Son.

The Anti-messiah openly and privately denies or rejects G-d and the Son of G-d as (Dan 11:37-38) accurately interprets that he does. The scripture also NEVER says that the Anti-messiah is a Jewish figure who comes into world power and deceives the nations or the Jewish people. Or that he is a false look alike wannabe Jewish Messiah whom the Jewish nation must accept as its false Messiah for his program to get underway. Even though it was made clear that our Messiah warned "MANY" not just one will come to deceive and proclaim to be false Messiahs (Mrk 13:22). However the Anti-messiah on this point never proclaims himself to be directly such a person. Instead he specifically proclaims not to be Messiah, but proclaims himself to be a G-d and the only G-d of all (2Thess 2:4)! His carnal origins also peg him to be a gentile and not Jewish at all, as the scripture says he will come from out of (Europe). If he proclaimed to be a false Messiah he would then have to fit or fulfill the Messianic scriptures, which we know from scripture he fits none of the bill! He's born in (click here for more)
