Generalizing Old Testament figures

On a number of occasions I have heard many T.V preachers and teachers using Old Testament figures to explain away what G-d wants to do with the life of every Christian. They will use biblical figures such as Elijah (1), Abraham (2), Moses (3), David (4), and so on. But when they use these biblical figures they often generalize the idea that just because G-d did what he did in the biblical figures lives he then MUST do the same for everyone. However they never conceive that each biblical figure is unique and was set apart for a specific roll, time of fulfillment, and purpose. In other words there was only ONE Moses, David, and Elijah for a reason (no carbon copies applied). No one can instantly become any one of these figures personally or even exactly, but can learn about their character, life, and roll during Old Testament times for encouragement and inspiration. Unfortunately many Christians are duped into believing that they will .....

Are we redeemed

Inspirational Reading

From rules and regulations?

In this month we would like share on a comment made by a very well known Pastor in the Oregon area. The comment which he made was we'll just call him John for now pretty much thinks that Christianity is a faith unlike Judaism? Unfortunately, I do not share his opinion here because in re-examining a chapter in the book of Acts contradicts Pastor John's ideas on Judaism (a1). In fact Acts is very specific on what the Jewish new covenant faith looked like in 1st century Jerusalem (a2). Pastor John clearly expresses "thank G-d we are redeemed from the rules or regulations of Judaism"! Quite frankly we still are practicing rules and regulations only now do we do this by following all of the commandments of our Messiah Yeshua (Jesus)(a3). To follow the commandments of our Messiah would be to understand that this is our faith which would be our New Covenant Judaism. Our faith is our Judaism! We are NOT free from it but we fulfill it by doing it (b). In the book of Acts most Jewish believer's Judaism was not reckoned by the todays term or word Christianity (c), nor was their faith considered any different from true biblical Judaism. While the word "Christian" is only used in the book of Acts twice, all other new covenant books except 1peter never used the term. The book of Acts further does not support the idea that every single Jewish follower prided themselves by the same term. In the Hebrew version of Acts the Greek term for Christian is really the Hebrew word (Mo'shi-he'-yeem) which means Messiah followers.....

OSY MISSION STATEMENT

Osy is a teaching, discipleship, evangelistic ministry. Its focus is to share the full richness of both the Tanach (OT) and gospel from a Jewish Christian perspective (Rom 1:16). Osy mission is to educate and inform the body of Messiah Yeshua about its Hebraic heritage, its relationship to Israel and G-ds chosen people. Building love relationships and bringing understanding between the Jewish community and Christian community, to glorify in unity the G-d of Israel through our Messiah in everything we do (Rom 2:9). To clearly reveal and demonstrate the ultimate love of Messiah Yeshua (Yohanan-John 13:34-35).
